Contents

Illustrations vii
Acknowledgements xii
Maps xiii
Introduction 3

1 Ethno-Religious Settlement
The Canadian Prairies in Context 13

2 Possessing the Land
The Secular, the Sacred, and the Dead 43

3 Founding Stories and Founding Fathers
Beginnings, Place, and Belonging 77

4 Region and Nation
Situating the Prairie Experience within National Narratives 109

5 Outside Connections
Homelands, Diasporas, and the Forty-Ninth Parallel 135

6 Wheat, Dragon Ships, and Baba
Symbols of Prairie Ethnicity 159

7 Returning to the Land
Commemoration and Preservation of the Past 191

8 Pilgrimage
The Land as “Sacred Ground” and Gathering Point 219
Conclusion 247
Notes 253
Index 291